BERJAYA WATERFRONT HOTEL
(FORMERLY KNOWN AS THE ZON REGENCY HOTEL)
JOHOR BAHRU, JOHOR, MALAYSIA

Organized By

INSTITUT KIMIA MALAYSIA

In Association with

JABATAN STANDARDS MALAYSIA

INTRODUCTION

The Standards Malaysia Act 1996 was amended to enable Standards Malaysia to appoint standards developer. Institut Kimia Malaysia (IKM) is one of the appointed Standard Development Agency (SDA) and will be responsible for development of standards under Industrial Standards Committee (ISC B) for chemicals and materials.

IKM intends to develop standards which will be eventually and widely used and be able to differentiate our national products for greater competitive advantage in international trade and commerce. A series of awareness talks will be held to engage the industry and to facilitate standards development initiative by industries themselves.

OBJECTIVES

The objectives of this seminar is to provide an opportunity for the industries to be informed on the development process and the advantages in the use of Malaysian Standards, particularly standards on chemicals and materials for business competitive advantage. It also provides a forum for Institut Kimia Malaysia (IKM) acting as a Standard Development Agency (SDA) to understand the needs of the industries as well as issues pertaining to the use and adoption of Malaysian Standards.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Entrepreneurs, Scientists, Researchers, Laboratory Managers, Chemists, Academicians, Consultants, OSH Officers, Marketing Executives, Research Organizations, Institutions of Higher Learning, Government Agencies and Private Sectors.
