

OKU Job Fair

4 -5 Jan 2014

11am to 7pm

Danga City Mall, JB

(In conjunction with 2nd Johor Career & Postgraduate Expo 2014)

The OKU members will not be left out at the two-day 2nd Johor Career & Postgraduate Expo 2014 to be held from 4th & 5th January (Saturday & Sunday) at the Danga City Mall, Johor Bahru.

There will be a 2014 OKU Job Fair is Jointly organized by Junior Chamber International (JCI) Muar and Social Care Organization Partnership Engagement (SCOPE). Endorsed by SME Johor Selatan.

This OKU Job Fair purpose is to connecting the disabled people talents, skill and ability to the employers.

The objective of this OKU Job Fair was to match the disabled person's talents, skills and abilities with SME companies looking for workers.

We encourage SME company giving support and involved with this meaningful CSR project and bring out the awareness to the public.

There will be face-to-face interviews with the disabled people and JCI members will be there to help the companies understand the process of recruiting such people. More SME companies are urged to join the fair and recruit the disabled rather than hire foreign workers.

We hope those of the SME company register and join with us on this OKU (Disable) Career Fair 2014 in Johor Bahru.

For more information, contact organizing chair lady Vivian Tan (017-7581588), Lily Wong(019-6581117), e-mail president.jcimuar@gmail.com or visit its Facebook page (<https://www.facebook.com/penexpoevents>).